A BRACE OF LIES.

And Both Knocked Out in One Short Round.

My attention having been called to a couple of lying statements in this morn ing's Tribune regarding myself, you will oblige me by referring to them and publishing the truth. In vulgar and blasphemous language I am charged, first with an effort to "capture" the Chamber of Commerce, and second, with opposition to the location of the Sanitarium near the Grant Brothers' Company livery barn on West Temple Street. Now, as I am interested in perpetuating the Coamber interested in perpetuating the Cnamber I certainly did not aspire to the presidency. I thought and still think that it would have been better for the Chamber, and greatly increased its power and influence for good, if more of the representatives of the great financial industrial and mercantile interests of the city and Territory had been given places in the board of directors. I laboied to that end, working openly and fairly in the meeting, as all gentlemen who were present will concede.

As to opposition to the proposed sani-

As to opposition to the proposed sani-tarium, I expressed my gratification when I learned that the establishment was to adjoin property in which I am interested. I wish there were more praiseworthy, public institutions, and I wish they would crowd as close to my real estate as possible, for the value of my land cannot be made to high to two of a series which has been continued almost daily for many months; but I have deemed it proper that the public should be made acquainted with the faisity of the malicious assaults upon me and on the institutions and companies with which I am associated. The motive inspiring the too apparent lies above mentioned is the motive inspiring all of them. It can only be inherent malice, urged on by stup dity and ignorance. Yours respectfully, H. J. Grant.

Last Saturday afternoon the large well ventilated and beautifully lighted studio of Miss Louie Wincote, at \ 0.36 West Temple Street was the scene of gay festivities occasioned by the meeting of the members of the newly organized Bohemian Club. The room was tastefully decorated with flowers which, however, failed to throw into shadow the many works of art that graced the walls and tables. After enjoying a sumptuous rapast in accurastudio of Miss Louis Wincote, at No. joying a sumptuous report in regular Bohemian style, original tossts were given as dresponded to promptly, displaying much talent and unusual wit. Towards evening readings and recita-tions were delivered, and the twilight was made merry with many sweet voices singing to the soothing strains or the light guitar.

The Arguments Made in Washington Yesterday.

RICHARDS AGITATES WEST

The Liberals Show the White Feather, and Mr. Ferry Only Has Bacabone.

There was an interesting matines in Washington yesterday. The House committee on Territories made up the audience, and several prominent residents of Utah were the actors. The dispatches given below shed light upon the matter:

WASHINGTON, January 12. - The House committee on Territories devoted a session this morning to hearing the argument upon the claims of Utah for admission as a State. The element seeking admission is represented by Delegate Caine, Franklin S. Richards and J. M. Wilson (attorney). In the opposition are Judge Baskin, Governor West, E. P. Ferry and Judge McBride. MR. RICHARDS OPENED THE ARGUMENT

Perhaps I have given too much at tention to the falseh ods referred to, in view of the fact that, as ships and suffering undergone by the I am informed, they are only two of a series which has been control, almost daily for many months; in an address in which he briefly told as compared with other sections of the country. He defended the patriotism of the inhabitants, citing the efforts of their ancestors in the war. Touching polygamy, he said that since 1832, there had been ten convictions for plural new marriages. All of the other convictions were cases of marriage contracted before the enactment of the law. Richards attacked the Governor of the Territory, accusing him of misrepresenting the positions and intentions of the Mormon inhabitants of U ah, and perverting the facts in general to the interest of the Genilles. He characterized as absurd what he termed the dime novel stories of Mormon atrocities. No general prosperity of the real property nolders of Utah would be injured in the admission of Utah as a State. Property would be protected under the State their ancestors in the war. Touching Finding that the demand for educated would be protected under the State Constitution as it had been under the Constitution of the Territory. He did not mean to censure all the Gentiles who signed the petitions as many and were honorable citizens. In conclusion, he set out in detail the claims of the Territory for admission. The patriotism and justice of Congress could no longer keep her loyal people in po-litical seridom. He took up the Gov-ernor's report to the Secretary of the Interior, and read Midavits to show that it was incorrect as to the power of the Courch in civil affairs. He quoted from the Church authorities to show the perfect freedom of the mem. bers to vote as they please, and from the election laws to prove that no one can discover what or whom an elector votes for. Also, that lithing is an en-tirely voluntary hanels, determined by the giver, and that the whole hormor theory is based on free agency and it practice. Everything is done by "common consent," thus making the Mormon Church the most democratic on the earth.

HE DEPRECATED THE GOVERNOR'S PRES-ENCH

here for the vile purpose of trying to establish an absolutism in Utah, in which, with a legislative commission, he would have the power to appoint all the local officials.
